

CAG Ground Rules

- All participant input is valued and considered.
- Open mindedness, open participation and honestly is expected.
- Treat each other with respect and dignity.
- Project must progress at reasonable pace to meet project schedule.
- Clear and transparent decision making process followed.
- Try to attend all of the meetings. Substitutes to be informed of details of previous meetings in advance.
- Share information with your organization, community and neighbors.
- Meetings will start and finish on time.